

PSABA Public Sector Aboriginal Business Association

"Committed to advancing Aboriginal business opportunities in the public sector..."

Membership Application

Membership Benefits

Aboriginal Business Members benefit from a full voting membership including the following:

Networking

- PSABA provides a forum for Aboriginal firms to develop opportunities for partnerships, joint ventures, strategic alliances, subcontracting and business network development.

Advocacy

- PSABA works with public sector buyers to promote the capabilities of Aboriginal firms.
- PSABA provides public sector buyers with information about the advantages of Aboriginal procurement programs.

Membership Structure

PSABA welcomes Aboriginal business owners as Members; public and private sector organizations as Associate Members.

Voting Membership:

To qualify as a voting member a business must meet the requirements of the Federal Treasury Board policy, Procurement Strategy for Aboriginal Business, as interpreted by the Department of Indian and Northern Affairs.

- At least 51% of the firm must be owned and controlled by Aboriginal owner (s) (Status, Non-Status, Metis or Inuit).
- If the business has 6 or more full time employees, at least 1/3 must be Aboriginal.
- If the business is a joint venture or consortium, then 51% of the partnership must be controlled by an Aboriginal business as defined above.
- As well, if the partnership has 6 or more staff, 1/3 must be Aboriginal.

An Aboriginal business who qualifies as a voting member will retain full voting and decision making powers.

Associate Membership:

- Associate memberships are extended to Canadian private and public sector organizations working with Aboriginal business. Associate members have a solid reputation for taking a leadership role in supporting Aboriginal economic development initiatives.
- Associate members will have an opportunity to increase their market exposure through the PSABA member network.

To qualify as a voting member, a business must meet the requirements of the Federal Treasury Board policy, Procurement Strategy for Aboriginal Business, as interpreted by the Department of Indian and Northern Affairs.

Name

Title

Organization

Street Address

City

Province/Territory

Postal Code

Phone

Fax

Email

Membership Level
please select one:

Select One

Voting - Sole proprietorship

Voting - 2 to 5 employees

Voting - More than 5 employees

Associate Member

Complete the membership application form and submit to: